

CHECKLIST FOR REGISTRATION

Canadian Registered Midwifery Applicants

As a registered midwife who is registered in a Canadian jurisdiction outside Alberta and would like to apply for registration with the College of Midwives of Alberta (CMA), you must complete the following:

☐ Application for Registration

Provide a completed application, dated and signed and create your CMA profile – Application for Registration

On your application, please provide a current photo with a plain background that will be used for your practice permit card. The photo must be a clear and coloured headshot, similar to your passport photo.

☐ Non-Refundable Application Fee

Submit payment of the $300 CAD non-refundable application fee to the CMA (invoice available at the end of the online application above). Interac e-transfer can be made to info@albertamidwives.org or contact the same email address for alternate payment options.

☐ Identification

Upload in your profile a clear copy of a government issued identification that matches your full legal name on the application form. The identification must include your photograph and signature. For example, a passport or a driver's license.

☐ Citizenship, Residency or Employment Authorization

Submit copy of: Canadian passport, Canadian birth certificate, permanent resident card or valid work permit.

☐ Name Change

Upload in your profile a copy of documentation to support your name change if your name on any document submitted is different from your full name on the application. For example, a marriage certificate or legal name change document.

☐ Criminal Record Check

Upload in your profile a Police Information Check with a Vulnerable Sector Check through your local police service in Canada conducted within 6 months prior to the submission date of your complete application.

☐ Letter of Standing and Professional Conduct

Provide a Letter of Standing and Professional Conduct from each jurisdiction where you were or are registered as a regulated professional (for example, midwife, nurse, physician). This letter is valid for 6 months and if you do not complete your registration in 6 months you will be required to provide a new one (must be sent directly from the regulatory body to admin@albertamidaives.org).

☐ Jurisprudence Exam

The Jurisprudence exam is currently suspended as it goes through a review and update.

☐ Declaration for Registration

Complete the Declaration for Registration form available through your CMA profile >"view documents" > "additional" > "Declaration for Registration".

☐ English Language

Provide proof of current English language test if English is not your first language or if you have not completed your midwifery education in English.

IELTS – Academic 7.0 Overall (minimum 7.0/component)

TOEFL – Internet-based 95 total (25 min. speaking and 21 min. other components)

Alternative proof of English proficiency will be accepted as per the Labour Mobility Regulation. Please contact the CMA to learn more.

☐ Liability Insurance

Provide evidence of professional liability insurance and upload a copy of your Certificate of insurance in your profile. Please contact Alberta Association of Midwives for more information. Important: You will be able to apply for insurance only once all the above requirements are completed and CMA has issued your registration number.

☐ Practice Permit Fees

Submit payment of Practice Permit Fee: $4550 for the entire year; fees will be adjusted according to the month you begin practice. Please contact info@albertamidwives.org for payment arrangements once you have your insurance in place.

CHECKLIST FOR REGISTRATION Canadian Registered Midwifery Applicants

Additional Information

- AHS Privileges - Midwifery services are publicly funded through Alberta Health Services. We recommend that if you are applying for any midwifery position you contact Alberta Health Services to understand the privileging and appointment process and to ensure the position is funded - midwives@AHS.ca
- Complete applications may take up to 5 business days to be processed.
- The Registrar or the Registration Committee may request additional information in accordance with the Health Professions Act, the Midwives Regulations, and the CMA Bylaws.
- Coordination of the application process is important to ensure a document does not expire before all required documents are received and approved. Also, please confirm with Alberta Health Services regarding their process so you can coordinate similar requirements (for example: criminal record check).
- Additional questions may be directed by email to admin@albertamidwives.org
